(b) and (c) The Planning Commission has had no occasion to criticise implementation of Steel Projects in the public sector.

(d) While the on-going projects are sought to be completed within the periods indicated in ttne above statement by intensive monitoring, Government is taking steps to ensure that some of the major reasons which delayed projects in the past do not recur in the future Greater emphasis will be placed on detailed project prepration, formulation of an integrated project management team from conceptiln to commissioning of the project. curring down of time for tender appraisals, import clearance and release of foreign exchange. Stricter contracts will be entered into with imposition of high penalties for non-performance. It is expected that with these proposed measures. new projects to be taken up will not witness the same delays as are witnessed in some of the on-going projects.

Orphans Homes

1673. SHRI GANESHWAR KUSUM : Will the Minister of WELFARE be pleased to state :

(a) the number of orphans homes opened in the country so far ;

(b) the State and Union Territory-wise location of each of these orphans homes ;

(c) whether it is a fact that there are a large number of destitute orphans without a home in the country;

(d) if so, the steps taken to create more orphans homes ; and

(e) the details of the schemes of Government in this regard ?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF WELFARE (SHRI GIRDHAR GOMANGO): (a) and (b) This Ministry does not maintain a list of all the orphan homes in the country. However 861 orphans homes in the country are in receipt of financial assistance under the Centrally Sponsored Scheme for the Welfare of Children in Need of Care and Protection. Statement Indicating State-wise break-up of such organisation is enclosed.

(c) and (d) No such assessment is available. Due to the financial constraints, it is not possible to take up a programme to cover the entire population of orphans in the country. However, there has been a steady rise in the allotment of funds for the aforesaid scheme and more and more institutions looking after destitute children are being covered under this programme. While during the Sixth Plan a grant-in-aid of Rs. 690.86 lakhs was given to the State Government and Union Territory Administrations, an outlay of Rs. 20 crores is included in the Seventh Plan.

Statement II

The scheme for the Welfare of Children in Need of Care and Protection was launched in 1974-75 to provide shelter, education and welfare services to abandoned, neglected, orphaned and homeless children. The scheme provides assistance to voluntary organisations through the State Government/Union Territory Administrations for extending both institutional and non-institutional services to children (0-18 years) in need of care and protection. The expenditure of grants is shared equally by the Central and State Governments from 1979-80. However, in respect of Union Territories, the Central Government provides the entire grant.
